

THE LAUNCH LODGE

Acknowledgements, Waiver and Release

This document must be signed by the Participant and / or the Parent or Legal Guardian as applicable.

All references to the Participants include the parent and / or legal guardian.

As a condition of participation in the program, the Participant agrees to the following:

Participant/Guardian acknowledges that a wide variety of activities will be conducted, including swimming, waterfront activities, shopping in town, preparing and cooking meals. Participant acknowledges that some of the activities may subject her to certain stresses and hazards, not all which will be foreseen. Participant assumes all the risks incident to the nature of the activities to be conducted and agrees that neither The Launch Lodge or Community Living Retreat, LLC nor any of its Representatives shall be held responsible for any damages or injuries resulting to the participant in the program. In the event the program staff determines that the participant cannot meet the program eligibility requirements the participant may be dismissed early from the program. Participant desires and consent to take part in all such activities unless otherwise indicated in writing prior to the summer program.

Participant/Guardian understands that the launch Lodge and its representatives are not responsible for loss or damage to the personal property and possessions of the participant. Participant is liable for any damage to the property of The Launch Lodge resulting from the acts of the participant

Participant consents to the use of any photos or films taken during the program whether for advertising, social media, promotion or publicity purposes by the launch Lodge unless otherwise indicated and written prior to the program. The participant waves all claims of compensation for such use.

Permission is granted for participants to attend all program field trips. Participants acknowledge the transportation may be provided by the program, related purposes in a vehicle provided by The Launch Lodge and its representatives. It is the participants responsibility to adhere to all safety requirements, using seatbelts and remaining seated.

The Launch Lodge reserves the right to deny or suspend services to the participant due to the participant, parent or guardians behavior.

Please initial each of the following:

_____ She is able to maintain basic personal hygiene, including bathing, washing hair, using the bathroom, and managing her period. We can help to improve skills like teeth brushing and washing hands.

_____ She does not have aggressive or destructive behaviors

_____ She does NOT wander or try to run away when out in public or at home

_____ She is interested in improving independent skills and open to feedback.

_____ She is comfortable living in a community setting and collaborating with others.

_____ She can follow basic rules, guidelines and directions.

Participant / Guardian represents that all the information provided in the application, including the health and behavior forms, is true and correct and that The Launch Lodge and its representatives have full right and authority to rely on the information contained therein. Participant further recognizes that The Launch Lodge and its representatives reserve the right to reject any participant in the event of a failure or refusal of the participant to accurately complete and sign all the required documents.

This program, including the rules for registration and participation, do not discriminate on the basis of age, gender, religion, creed, race, sexual orientation, nation of origin, or other protected statuses.

I have read and fully understand the program details, waiver, and release.

Signature of Parent/Guardian _____

Date _____

Signature of Camper (if over 18 years of age): _____

Date: _____

Please return to: Info@TheLaunchLodge.com